Reduce Patient Onboarding Time by Upto 80% using emSigner

Imagine what's possible when you reduce the patient onboarding time by more than 80%! Not only will you be deliver better patient experience, but also witness significant monetary savings, which can be better utilized for more critical activities.

Well, this is what you'll get when you utilize emSigner — eMudhra's market leading paperless office solution — to digitize procedures and streamline workflows. In fact, here is quick snapshot of the benefits that our client witnessed when they used our digital signing and workflow management solution to eliminate paper in the patient onboarding process:

- Reduce paper trail in patient onboarding process by up to 90%
- Reduced errors in the process and provided easy integration to EMR and billing systems (API based integration)
- Completely eliminated postage, printing and other paper-related costs
- Reduced staff time for enrollment by more than 75%
- Increased visibility into enrollment and onboarding process

There's plenty of other ways in which emSigner can augment your operations. Get in touch with us at eservices@emudhra.com to learn more.